

Reporting Data Points

Terminology & Definition

PURPOSE:

Along with general information of dates, times, organization and other basics, the following specific data points are captured through the OneRail platform and used in different reports displayed in the Reporting page. The terminology and definition of the most used other data points in these reports are included in the following list.

TERMINOLOGY & DEFINITIONS

Data Point/Calculation	Definition
Delivery Cost (Estimated/Final)	How much a delivery will cost to complete. Estimated is the potential cost of the delivery. Final is the actual cost of the delivery
Route Cost	How much a route will cost to complete
Delivery Created Date/Time	The date and time that a delivery was created
Delivery Dispatched Date/Time	The date and time that a delivery was dispatched
Delivery Completed Date/Time	The date and time that a delivery was completed
Pick Up Location Name	The name of a location that is being picked up from
Pick Up Location Number	The number associated with a pickup location (Store Number)
Pick Up Location Address	The address of a location that is being picked up from
Drop-off Location Name	The name of a location that is being dropped off to
Drop-off Location Address	The address of a location that is being dropped off to
Delivery/Order ID	The reference number used to identify a Delivery/Order
POD/Signature Provided	Determines if a completed delivery has been provided with a POD/Signature
Network Type	Determines the network that was used for a delivery (internal/external fleet, Rate card)
Service level	The service level chosen for a delivery
SLA Met	Determines if a service level was satisfied
Delivery Status	The status that a delivery is in (picked up, delivered, cancelled)
Delivery Item Count Total	The total count of items on a delivery(Sku/Cases)
Delivery Weight Total	The total weight of a delivery
Exceptions Reason	The exception/s applied to a delivery to account for issues that happen before/during/after transit